From the Desk of Fr. Jaime Paniagua

Jesus sends us to preach his Kingdom, as he sent one day his Twelve Apostles. The Lord sent them advising them to take nothing for the journey: neither bread, bag or money... because God's power would go with them. God transformed Amos, a humble shepherd, into a great prophet. Sometimes we think that we need lots of preparation or many other things, so as to be able to share our experience of God with others; but it should be enough for us to remember, as St. Paul teaches us, that God has chosen us, before the foundation of the world, to be his sons and daughters, holy and spotless before Him, in love. The fact that we are the chosen ones of God and his children, enables us to share his love with others. Are you preaching the Kingdom of God in your daily live, aware that you are his chosen one and his child?

Father Jaime Paniagua
Pastor

Jesús, nos envía a predicar su Reino, como hizo un día con los Doce Apóstoles. A ellos, Jesús les dijo que no llevaran nada para el camino: ni pan, ni mochila, ni dinero... porque el poder de Dios iría con ellos. A Amós, un pastorcillo que provenía de un origen humilde, Dios lo hizo un grande profeta. A veces pensamos que necesitamos mucha preparación o muchas cosas para poder compartir nuestra experiencia de Dios con otros; pero basta recordar, como nos dice San Pablo, que Dios nos ha escogido, antes de la creación del mundo, para ser sus hijos, santos e intachables ante él amor. El ser escogidos de Dios, hijos suyos, nos habilita para poder compartir su amor con los demás. ¿Estás predicando el Reino de Dios en tu vida diaria, consciente de que eres un escogido e hijo de Dios?
